

Fall 2010 Stampede of Culture

HCSO hosted “Stampede of Culture,” a celebration of music, art, and culture, at the Marshall Center Amphitheater. Students in the USF Program in Jazz Studies played for over two hours using both small and large ensembles. Nearly 500 people enjoyed the music, food and activities provided by the Pottery Club, Muslim Student Association, and independent artists.

